Parking Is City's Problem Committee Head Declares

Around the Square

Mrs. John Doe came in this week asking why this paper doesn't print a lot of news about the United Nations; says "It's one of the most important issues of our day."

And we're glad she asked. You're right, Mrs. Doe, it is one of the most important issues of the day. What we want to do for you—and we're glad you gave us this opportunity—is clarify for you, and for other readers, the role of weekly newspapers.

In the first place the role of any newspaper, weekly or daily, which operates legitimately, is to report the news, not to make it. In other words it is scarcely within the scope of this enterprise for us to simply "write about the United Nations" out of hand, or rather, in a vacuum. Sure, it's news—but you get your big national and international news in the large city dailies—not from us. Our job is to report what goes on here among the people of Sierra Madre, and this we endeavor to do to the best of our ability.

And now we come back to you, Mrs. John Doe. As a member of the community we consider it YOUR duty to do something about the United Nations—or about any other issue on which you feel strongly. It would then fall within the scope of our legitimate job to report on what you do, since you as a citizen are important and whatever you do is important.

In other words—if you want to read something about the United Nations in your hometown paper, why not join with other like-minded local citizens? Form a study group; get up your own UN club; issue reports, in your local group's name, on the proceedings at Lake Success.

Believe me—in behalf of the NEWS—when I say that under those circumstances you'll find a most cooperative press down here at 9 Kersting Square.

How about it?

So many organizations are bombarding us with publicity designed to "get out the vote" this year that, while we sympathize heartily with their desire to arouse that 49 per cent of franchised Americans who didn't go to the polls in the last presidential race, we can't help feeling that we must be truly objective—and give a few pointers to the other side. We thought hard—for at least three seconds—and came up with a few arguments for those who definitely don't want to vote in this Nov. 4 hassle. Listed in the order of importance, their arguments can read something like this:

(1) Who cares who wins, anyway?

(2) My candidate lost in Chicago—and if we don't play the game my way, I always take my marbles and go home.

(3) I think voting is a revolution by a lot of silly-looking men in powdered wigs and knee pants to give me the right to vote, and I'm going to put a stop to this dangerous practice.

Morgan Favors Short Term Bond Issue For Extra Area

No consensus regarding a solution to financing Sierra Madre's additional parking was reached at the meeting last week of the parking committee. But Al Morgan, chairman of the committee, expressed the personal opinion that the problem belonged squarely in the laps of all residents of the city—and not just the downtown merchants.

To Extend Both Rosemead and Orange Grove

An appropriation of $100,000 for the extension of Rosemead boulevard from Foothill boulevard three-quarters of a mile northward to Sierra Madre boulevard was approved this week by the Board of Supervisors.

The money will come from the county's state gas reimbursement. Also, another $104,000 will be paid to Pasadena for the eastward extension of Orange Grove avenue from Sierra Madre boulevard (within Pasadena) eastward to the extension of Rosemead boulevard in the Lower Hastings Ranch.

Assistant County Road Commissioner Earl Burt said that later approval would be given for the extension of New York drive eastward to Rosemead boulevard.

Mariposa NEWS Published Here At Big Profit

Sadly, the Sierra Madre NEWS this week announces that competition has come to town.

The new local newspaper, which hit the streets two weeks ago, is the work of four young Sierra Madreans who are spicing up an otherwise dull vacation by taking a flyer into the publishing field.

The staff is headed by Philip Jacobs, editor, and includes two reporters, Steven and Tommie Letford, and an advertising manager, Paul Jacobs.

Ads are being sold at the rate of a cent apiece, and the subscription rate undercut the NEWS considerably, with full issues going at four cents each.

Principal attraction was the joke column, being compiled by the busy editor from back files of Boys Magazine. Offices are at 454 Mariposa avenue, and office hours, the staff has announced, will be from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. daily.

Publication dates are determined by the shop foreman, Mrs. Nathan Jacobs, who also has the job of cutting stencils.

Name of the new publication? "The Mariposa News." And last week, stockholders report, they made a clear profit of $140—a result which Southern California publishers as a whole can only regard with pure envy.

Joint Potluck For Sea Scouts, Lions

There'll be a potluck supper for the Sea Scouts and Lions Club members tonight at 7:00 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, 71 E. Suffolk. Mothers of the Sea Scouts are in charge of the "feed."

'COME ON OUT AND SING' IS INVITATION OF CITY

Sierra Madre was invited to come out and "sing its heart out" at the first Community Sing since the twenties, Friday night in City Park. Moments of recreation, gave a final report on plans for the Sing, and reminded those who plan to attend to bring along cushions or blankets, since participants will sit on the grass.

They'll sit on the north side of the Park, he reported, on the lawn which slopes down toward the Park House. Down there they'll erect a tiny stage to hold Don Parker and his piano.

Mrs. Matilda Smith, director of music for the City School, will lead the group singing, and plans now are to have everybody join in the rendition of such old favorites as "Coming Round The Mountain," "Down By The Old Mill

Stream," "On Top Of Old Smokey," "John Jacob Jingle-helmersmith" and the "Hokey-Pokey Routine."

Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Marion Rutenschroer, who is visiting from Cincinnati, will present a special number.

Mrs. Smith and her sister formerly presented a radio program, with noted director Paul Whiteman, in the East.

Other solo numbers will be presented by Coleen Rutenschroer and Bob Willis, vocalists, and Danny Anderson, violinist.

The rest of the program will be taken up with boxing bouts with participants from the Wednesday night recreation classes directed by Bill Smith; a wrestling bout with members of the Pasadena YMCA participating, and a weight lifting and tumbling exhibition.

Kill Rattler In Center Of City

The honor of bagging the season's third rattler in Sierra Madre went to the George Hedwalls this week.

Seems as though the Hedwalls were returning from an outing Sunday night when they picked out with their headlights a big snake lying in the path of their car, on Grandview avenue, near N. Mountain Trail. Mr. Hedwall ran over the snake, and then, just to make sure, went back and forth across the reptile until he was reasonably sure it was dead.

The family then picked up their trophy and took it home to 417 N. Mountain Trail, where they found it had nine rattles and measured four feet long. Police Officer Travis, investigating the grisly trophy next day, reported that it was a "whopper"; one of the biggest he'd seen locally.

The three which have been killed aren't the only ones in the environs of Sierra Madre, however. Rangers in the nearby canyons and mountains have killed 10 since June, and know there are others about.

Rectify Error . . .

The NEWS wishes to make a correction of a mis-statement which appeared last week in these pages.

It was stated that $600 toward the cost of the playground fund would be supplied by L.A. County if the Board applied for the funds—"something which was not done this year."

Charles A. Skutt, school superintendent, stated this week that this is not the case; the school board has a contract this year with the County to help defray the cost of this program, and has billed the County for $840.

"We've billed them and we can foresee absolutely no reason why they will not meet this bill," Skutt reported. "We expect to have the $840 in the near future."

Inertia Is Greatest Enemy, Civil Defense Heads Find

One of the strongest deterrents encountered in obtaining talent for the various posts of responsibility in the Warden Activity of the Civil Defense Organization in the city has been the lassitude and complacency evidenced in general by the public as a whole. Col. Charles R. Gildart reported this week.

Many responsible and capable citizens, when solicited, have frankly stated that they are "not interested," he said. "We hope the memories of these persons who have expressed this attitude are not so short that they will be prone to criticize should everyone's interest be activated by the occurrence of an incident of some type that stimulates a general consciousness of the importance of Civil Defense."

His statement does not, he said, apply to those who have volunteered and those who have, to the prejudice of their own personal time and activities, assumed jobs and are now doing and have done more than their share.

A concentrated effort in the next few weeks will be made with an objective to have every section of our city manned by a Block Warden who will be responsible for from 10 to 15 households. His responsibility will be to complete a Census and Household Composition form for each household with a map of his section of the city; inform the householders of the basic supplies and essentials advisable for preservation of the family unit; and endeavor to encourage members of the family to take first aid, fire prevention and emergency health and sanitation courses. He will also encourage each member of the family to be familiar with the publication "Survival Under Atomic Attack" which has previously been sent out to everyone on the city mailing list.

When properly organized, none of the posts of Area, Section or Block Warden should be very time consuming, the Col. stated. In the sections of the city where an efficient job has been completed the workers have been amazed at the hidden talents and facilities that have been discovered in the individual households that could be brought into play by a well organized group in the event of any kind of a disaster.

If your household is not contacted by a Block Warden in the near future or you do not know who your Block Warden is please call the City Hall and ask Merritt Baker, the executive head of the Civil Defense Organization, to let you know where responsibility lies.

WEATHER REPORT

No weather this week. Weatherman on vacation. Maybe it got too hot for him, too.

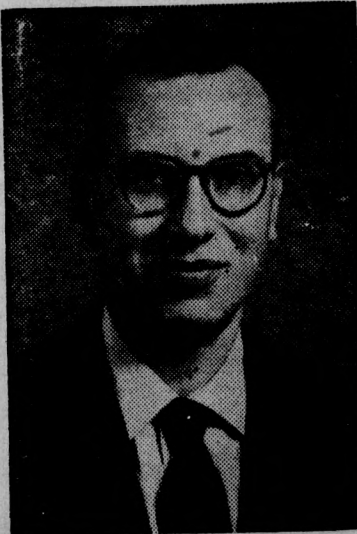

NAME GEORGE L. RUSSELL TO BANK MANAGER'S POST

Promotion of George L. Russell of Sierra Madre to the post of manager at Bank of America's Brooklyn-Cummings branch, Los Angeles, has just been announced by A. J. Gock, chairman of the bank's board of directors. Russell lives at 514 Santa Anita Court, with his wife, Helen.

Russell was assistant cashier at the branch prior to his promotion. He began his career as a messenger at the bank's San Francisco headquarters in 1929. He progressed steadily, and in 1938 he received an assignment which was to give him an extraordinarily broad view of the banking problems of a large number of people and industries. He was made an officer and placed on utility duty for three years. During that period he served as vacation and emergency relief officer for managers and other officials in 65 branches, covering two-thirds of California on this assignment.

From 1941 to 1946 he was on military duty, and upon his return went to West Arcadia branch, where he handled veteran loans and FHA loans during the heavy home-building program in San Gabriel Valley following the war.

He finds time to do his share of civic work, and has just completed a stint as co-chairman of the American Red Cross drive in Boyle Heights.

Republicans Go To People For Support In Campaign

GOP To Open Headquarters In Hotel Here

Republican headquarters will open soon in the Hotel Sierra Madre, at the rear of the foyer, GOP officials announced this week.

Further plans for staffing and operating the local headquarters will be announced later.

At the same time names of those heading the committee for the Republican Picnic and Rally, Sept. 4, were made known.

These include Tom Schwartz, in charge of arrangements; Mrs. Noren Eaton, publicity chief; Mrs. Mac Cason, chairman of the refreshments committee; Mrs. Baxter Juvenal, chairman of the hostess committee; Mrs. Stanley Fish, chairman of music and J. Caden Jenkins, in charge of mailing.

The picnic will be an old-fashioned basket supper, with coffee, lemonade and ice cream served by the hostesses. Speeches and a community sing will follow.

RUNS OVER CAR IN DRIVEWAY--- (P.S.---AN MG)

It was bound to happen, and this week it did.

Somebody ran over one of those little foreign cars that are turning up in such numbers all over town.

The car was William Mackie's MG, and the way it happened was this:

Mackie had the small economy package parked beside his Plymouth in a driveway where his good friend, Harry McLain of Sierra Linoleum, was laying some flooring for him.

Mack took a careful look out of his truck as he prepared to back out the drive, sighted the Plymouth and made arrangements to avoid it—but didn't see the tiny sportscar beside and slightly behind it.

Mack says it was so little and so light he tossed it right over the Plymouth. We don't know about that; all we know is we knew it was going to happen someday.

P.S. Damage was slight—like the car.

SEE NEED FOR RAISING $2500 IN SIERRA MADRE

Harold Roberts, chairman of the Sierra Madre Republican Finance Committee, this week placed it squarely up to the local voter to help raise the money necessary to elect a Republican slate in November. Sierra Madre's share in the cost is $2500, he reported.

HAROLD ROBERTS

With Frank Spencer and Col. Walter Thurber, Roberts makes up the group which will collect funds from this city. These funds will then go to the United Republican Campaign Committee for county, state and national distribution.

"The cost of conducting a campaign has risen to astronomical heights," Roberts said here this week. "Just to mention the price of a single half-hour of television—of a single hour of radio—of operating a special campaign train—is enough to make the ordinary citizen quail."

"And yet," he went on, "there is no other practical way to reach the ordinary voter; the man on whom the outcome of November's election depends. We must raise the sum of money assigned to us, we must raise it here in Sierra Madre and we must, in so doing, take in all of those of our citizens who have an interest and stake in seeing that the two-party system continues in this country."

Emphasizing the strong local need for funds to help defray expenses right here in the city, he pointed out that the local treasury is, like Mother Hubbard's Cupboard, just about bare.

"Even to open the campaign which begins after Labor Day, we'll need some money to get started," he said. "Therefore we're asking everyone who is able, to give now—right away." Those who wish to earmark their contributions for individual candidates—Eisenhower, Nixon and Edgar Hiestand are the local concerns—are encouraged to do so, and assured that the money will be used in the way they wish.

Concluding his appeal for funds—to meet local costs and also to meet requirements at the state, county and national level—Roberts reiterated the fact that the Republican campaign must rely on the individual voter, at the grass-roots level.

"We are unable to equal the huge funds that can be raised by pressure groups who are interested in keeping the other party in power," he concluded. "We can only depend on the average citizen to dig down and make his contribution, however small, and give us the backing we need to see that our nation starts Nov. 5 with a clean house."

Mrs. Wm. Burns Sister-in-Law Of Head Demo

William E. Burns of 549 W. Montecito reports that his wife is currently visiting her sister, Mrs. Stephen A. Mitchell, in New Mexico.

This would be worth an item on the social page—excepting Mrs. Stephen A. Mitchell is the wife of the newly appointed Democratic National Chairman, and close and good friend to Democratic nominee Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

The sisters should have a lot to talk about before Mrs. Burns comes back to Sierra Madre.

BOY, 10, FALLS AT CANYON POOL

Bobby Meyer, 10, did some quick thinking on the Canyon Pool high dive Tuesday afternoon which netted him, and the little girl he protected, nothing worse than the fractured arm he received.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyer, 635 E. Grandview. According to his mother, Bobby.

Boyhood Days As Seen By Former Sierra Madrean

(Editor's note: Many oldtimers will remember John de Pencier as a Sierra Madrean. In fact he was a member of one of the earliest families here, residing at one time on Central avenue (now Sierra Madre boulevard) at the foot of Canyon avenue. Mr. de Pencier now lives in Samoa, Humboldt County, Calif., but has never quite forgotten the town where he spent his boyhood days. In the following story he looks back on those days, 50 years ago, and we hope NEWS readers will enjoy reminiscing with him.)

By John De Pencier

The boys who grew up in Sierra Madre 50 years ago were quite resourceful in regard to sports afield. Many a family table was made into a banquet by one of the younger members who would bring in some cottontail rabbits that were prevalent in the neighborhood. These boys were clever. They read in the school library the leather stocking tales, and when school was out, some of them brought home the bacon that was sorely needed for subsistence.

It was Saturday morning in early Spring. The bell on the Raldowne Ranch rang at four o'clock. Mr. Johnson, the foreman, got his mules and men moving in all directions from the barns to their places of work.

A flock of wild pigeons breezed down from the mountains at about this time in the early morning, circled over the oak trees below, finally coming to rest in the top of one where they could pick off the acorns at their leisure. By this time the mule teams had arrived at their places of work on a section of the ranch known as the woods, where they were constructing a dirt dam to hold the waste water and to raise the water level in the wells below, near Arcadia.

My brother Ted and I heard the rustling noise of the birds coming down from the mountains to feed in the oak trees. We prepared our shot guns. It was some time afterwards that the birds finally settled in a tree below. Their beautiful blue necks were plainly visible, but to get within range was no easy thing. A fence running north and south bordered the field where the oak tree stood. Along one side was an old road leading down to where the men were working, with plenty of brush bordering the fence.

The manner in which we wiggled over the ground to get behind that fence would have done credit to any hunter. The guns banged four times, and the pigeons rose in the air. About this time the rapid hoof beats of Johnson's fast nag came to our ears as we disappeared in opposite directions. Ted hid in a rats' nest while I climbed into an orange tree. Mr. Johnson was somewhat bewildered over the disappearance of the two hunters, and after driving within 20 feet of Ted without seeing him, went back and picked up the birds. When we got back on the scene and the ranch foreman was gone, one lone bird dropped down through the tree for us, but being well trained in the use of firearms we made a safe retreat, and that is why Mr. Johnson's sorrel mare got back to the barn with a whole hide. Such experiences made life in the out of doors quite interesting and like many boys, guns were in our minds a great deal. So I am going to tell you a story about a gun and a bear, told by a hunter to a group of boys that completed the Sturtevant Trail. This story was told by Lewis Newcomb one evening around the campfire. Believe it or not!

"Did you ever stop to realize how fast a bear can turn around? A bear can turn around so fast when fighting dogs, or at any other time that he looks like a blur. I had a close call with the last bear I killed. I use a big 45-90 but that gun was too penetrating. When I shot him with that high-powered gun, that bear turned so fast when I poured it to him in his open mouth, that he gave one big jump through the air in the opposite direction, and ran down the side of the mountain. Well, I went back to camp and when I cleaned the gun, the bullet was stuck in the barrel pointing in the wrong way."

At this time the mountaineer made a long pause in the story and one of the boys accidentally spit in the frying pan. "Well," continued the mountaineer, "next day we found the dead bear a hundred yards down the side of the mountain. We skinned it, and there was no sign of any place where the bullet went in or came out. That bear turned so fast that the bullet went clear through him and got stuck in the gun barrel going in the opposite direction."

At this part of the story the party disbursed to pack up for an early start back to Sierra Madre in the morning for the trail was through.

Silver Anniversary Mark Will Be Celebrated By Music Association

Pasadena Civic Music Association will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a gala season at Civic Auditorium starting Oct. 26. Mrs. James G. Newcomb, association president, announces that the season is expected to be the greatest in Pasadena history.

There will be a series of 10 festival performances, under baton of Richard Lert, who this fall begins his 18th season as musical director. Three of the productions will combine the forces of the Pasadena Civic Symphony Orchestra and Pasadena Civic Chorus, according to Calista Rogers, program chairman.

Mrs. Newcomb said that at each concert there would be honored some of the Civic Music Association "graduates" who are now world-famous artists—seven of them being at the Metropolitan Opera.

Dates for the 1952-53 season are as follows: Oct. 26, Youth Concert, 3 p.m.; Nov. 23, Symphony Concert, 3 p.m.; Dec. 13, "Messiah," 8:15 p.m.; Dec. 14, "Messiah," 3 p.m.; Jan. 25, Youth Concert, 3 p.m.; Feb. 14, Symphony Concert, 8:15 p.m.; Mar. 29, "Parsifal," 3 p.m.; April 26, Youth Concert, 3 p.m.; May 17, Youth Concert with LeMone Ballet, 3 p.m.; May 24, Beethoven Symphony No. 9, 3 p.m.; Lauris Jones will again be assistant conductor and Stanley Plummer, concertmaster; Vera Barstow and Milton Kestenbaum return as coaches.

'Life of Love' Takes Honors For Speaker

Ed Cavanaugh took honors for the best speech of the evening, when the Sierra Madre Toastmasters Club met Wednesday at the Plantation.

Speaking on the topic, "Living The Life of Love," Cavanaugh topped six other speakers, including two visitors from the Monrovia club.

Warren Merboth, president of the Monrovia Club, did the general evaluation. Other guests from Monrovia were Cecil Langdon and Fred Schol.

Hugh Warden of the local contingent served as Toastmaster of the evening.

Kudos accrued to the Sierra Madre Club when it was announced that Herbert Milo had visited the Santa Anita organization last Tuesday and walked away with the cup for the speech he made at that time.

UP THEY GO—Forrest Laugenour, a director of the State Agriculture Society, assists State Fair model Gay Bennetts in releasing from the Capitol Grounds the first of 5,000 helium-filled balloons, each one carrying a yellow tag inviting the finder to bring his immediate family to the California State Fair, August 28 through September 7, as guests of the Fair for a day. Five hundred balloons were sent aloft from the Capitol Grounds; the rest of the balloons will be released from various towns throughout the state. The theme of the 1952 State Fair is "The Family," and all California families are extended a special invitation to come to the Fair.

Hinshaw Nominates Twelve For Academy Appointments

Rep. Carl Hinshaw this week announced the nomination of three principals and nine alternates for appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. The top three successful in qualifying for entrance will enter Annapolis next July 1.

The nominations were made by Congressman Hinshaw on the basis of a competitive examination and their standing in the list was in the order of the grades they received in the tests. Henry Fred Remy, Jr., 18, of 15946 Van Owen, Van Nuys, scored a grade of 96, the highest that any candidate has ever received in the 14 years Congressional Hinshaw has been making his nominations by competitive examination.

The other two principals are John Daniel Richardson, 19, of 432 N. Lamer avenue, Burbank, who is now in service at the Navy Electronics School, Treasure Island; and Richard Francis Wolbert, 21, of 1252 N. Chester avenue, Pasadena, who is at the Naval Academy Training School, Bainbridge, Md.

The alternates, in order of their nomination, are: John Bruce Cobb, 1480 Linda Ridge road, Pasadena; James Edward Winters, 8250 Lankershim boulevard, North Hollywood; Robert Samuel Cunningham, 655 Berkshire avenue, Pasadena; Russell James Caswell, 4109 Farndale avenue, North Hollywood; Pfc. Hobart Dean Belknap, Jr., 297 S. Madison avenue, Pasadena, now serving with the Marine Corps in Korea; Derrick Paine, Jr., 1100 N. Isabel street, Glendale; Gerald David Wilson, 371 S. Greenwood avenue, Pasadena; Marvin Edgar Nole, 5634 Hazeltine avenue, Van Nuys; and Robert Edgar Sherer, Jr., 2030 Paseo Redondo, Burbank.

Each Congressional District is entitled by law to have five midshipmen in the Naval Academy and four cadets at the Military Academy, West Point, at one time. New nominations are made by the Congressmen as vacancies occur due to graduations or other causes. Next year three of Congressman Hinshaw's appointees will be graduated at Annapolis but no vacancies will occur at West Point by graduation.

With the re-apportionment of Congressional Districts in California the new 21st and 22nd Districts, created from part of Congressman Hinshaw's old 20th District, will each be entitled to have five midshipmen and four cadets in the Academies. Some of his present appointees reside in these districts and will be credited to the new Congressmen who will be elected in the 21st and 22nd Congressional Districts next Nov. 4.

Monrovia Emblem Club Honors Guests

A recent business meeting of Monrovia Emblem Club paid honor to the state Emblem Club Association president, Mrs. Dorothy Frost, and her officers.

Present were Mrs. Edna Fahrner, marshal; Mrs. Clara Miller, Jr., past president; Mrs. Mildred Thorne, third vice-president; Mrs. Estella Carpenter, second marshal; Mrs. Florence Phillips, treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Bond, organist, and Mrs. Helen Stella, corresponding secretary.

Delegates were elected to go to Milwaukee in August. They include Mrs. Lucy Bennett, club president; Mrs. Genevieve Cayer, Mrs. Helen Bowler and Mrs. Iva Hayes, supreme district deputy.

This will leave additional vacancies for Hinshaw to fill after January 3rd from the new 20th District where he has already been elected through having received a majority of the votes on both party tickets at the June primaries.

Congressman Hinshaw suggested that alternates he has appointed who live in the new districts, and others residing there who desire appointments to the academies, get in touch with the new Congressmen after their election, to better their chances by obtaining higher ranking nominations.

TIMELY BOOK EMPHASIZES YOUR ROLE IN GOVERNMENT

Reviewed by Isabel Stradley

GOVERNMENT IS YOUR BUSINESS, by James Gregory Keller.

This is not a new book—it came out last year, nor is it a book addressed to people in general. It is addressed to you. It is not intended for the experts, nor will it make anyone an expert on government. It has been prepared for the average citizen, the man in the street, the housewife in her home, the farmer, the plumber, the doctor, the lawyer, the student, the actor, the writer and the corner grocer. All of these, with all the rest of us, constitute the government of the United States.

The book states over and over: "Either you run your government, or your government runs you." This is one country where you still have a free choice! You read in many interesting pages what you can do about it, and how you can do it, RIGHT NOW! You not only have a stake in the future, but you can do much personally to shape that future for yourself and for everyone else. Tracing the functions of government from their grass roots, the book explains the role of village, county, state, and federal agencies, showing that government affects everyone of us. It is a direct and personal responsibility. No government, the book emphasizes, is better than the people who run it!

While the author seems to place undue confidence in what one person can do, he covers the controversial territory without debating any political or economic issue, or any moral, philosophic or religious questions. It is usefully informative and written with an open and optimistic friendliness of approach.

The country you live in is the greatest successful experiment in government by the people that the world has known. Whose business is it? IT'S YOURS!

Snake Dances Of Hopi Tribe Next Week

Arizona's spectacular Snake Dances, the world-famed annual rain-prayer ceremony of the Hopi Indians, will be held this year between Aug. 24 and Aug. 30 at three mesa villages—Shungopovi on Aug. 26 or 27 and Shipaulovi on Aug. 29 or 30.

Priests of the tribe announced the first dance will take place at Hotevilla on Third Mesa on Aug. 24. Two more dances are scheduled at Second Mesa villages—Shungopovi on Aug. 26 or 27 and Shipaulovi on Aug. 29 or 30.

Dates are flexible from year to year because the start of the dances is determined by stages of the August moon.

Actually a nine-day performance by priests of the Snake and Antelope fraternities, the Snake Dance is mostly secret and held in kivas (underground ceremonial chambers), but the public is allowed to see the culminating rite on the last day. No cameras are allowed.

Editorials:

We Congratulate City Council

Our heartfelt congratulations to the City Council, on behalf not only of this newspaper, but the community it represents.

No more statesmanlike action could have been possible than the decision by which the Council decided to heed the advice of former Mayor Kinney, and incidentally of the NEWS, and add a new member to the police force.

The principal advantage to the excellent police force which Gordon McMillan heads will be, of course, an improvement in morale: members of the force will be operating on a work-week at least comparable to those which prevail throughout the state and county—48 hours as compared to the former 54. Studies of fatigue-induced accidents by the National Safety Council are enough to convince anybody of the desirability of this end. Trite as it sounds, though, there's another angle: they know somebody cares. Psychologically this may be the most important part of the whole deal.

The NEWS has been campaigning for this extra police detail for months, and naturally feels a sense of gratification that the Council has come around to this view after apparently taking an adamant stand on the other side of the question. We congratulate them on what we believe to have been the triumph of clear and enlightened thinking in the public interest, over a piddling concern with budgetary matters which left out the good of the community.

And we think that the improved moral of the police force will make itself felt in a new attitude throughout Sierra Madre—an attitude of pride in our men and the job they do; pride which begins in the City Council and makes its way down to the individual citizen.

THE SHOW'S THE THING . . . At least the kids up in the Hastings Ranch area thought so; and when Judith O'Neill organized a backyard theatrical venture the small fry bent all their efforts toward making it the theater success of the century. The elders weren't left out, either—Judith is an organizer of the most successful type, and she soon had every woman in the Ranch area busy sewing costumes, helping with scenery and gathering props. Above, just before the curtain on The Big Night, are, front row, left to right, Kathleen O'Neill, Jeffrey Hillard, Barbara Ann Cowan, Peter Asher, Jane Scurr and Gene Devine; second row, Judith O'Neill, Carol Anne Asher (partially hidden); Richard Scurr, Bill Hillard and Peeper Cowan.

TAKE TRAILER TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. William Cahill and son Robbie, of 421 N. Sunnyside, are taking a vacation by trailer through northern California and Oregon, and are reported by friends to be "looking for a ranch."

UPPER HASTINGS RANCH

PARTY LINE . . .

By MARGE THOMAS, Custer 5-2951

Mrs. Minnie B. Graves, who makes her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Robbie and Al Pruitt, has had just about as nice a summer as any mother could ask for. She has had a visit from two of her daughters, who live in the East, a son-in-law, and three granddaughters. One of the daughters, Shirley Fairchild, was late in arriving since she was playing in a National Bridge Tournament at Cincinnati. The time was well spent though because she came out the winner. Shirley is one of the country's top ranking bridge players and this victory placed her in fifth position. It is interesting to note that she is the only gal on the list of the country's 25 best players. Lele Sprayberry and daughter, Shirley, made the trip with Jim Fairchild and daughters, Bev and Carol. Once the group was assembled, the Pruitt house was a very lively and happy place. Ann Hough has deserted Ann Arbor, Mich., for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Paul and Barbara Hough. At present, the three H's have taken themselves off for a look at Yosemite and surrounding country. The Hurn family, on Michillinda, certainly have real cause to celebrate. Norma has had to spend quite some time in and out of the hospital but is now home to stay. Her cousin and husband, Obie and Pete Steever, have been looking after Ralph and small Jeffrey during her absence.

Pam and Bill Warden have just returned from an enjoyable trip through Yellowstone National Park. Connie and Tige Payne joined Pat and Frank Thomas in turning a cold shoulder on the never ending chores of a property owner, and spent last weekend at the beach. Phyllis and Bob Wilson have just returned home from a week of fun and frolic in San Francisco. Off hand, I can't think of a better place to accomplish both. Jane Reed has joined the list of "Occupational Widows." Business and its responsibilities beckoned Bob back to Chicago and New York for a couple of weeks.

Pioneer, 106, Dies At Home Of Daughter

A former resident of Sierra Madre, Mrs. Martha Agnes Roberts, died Aug. 14 at the age of 106 years, four months and 26 days.

Known as "Mattie" to her scores of friends hereabouts, Mrs. Roberts was a pioneer of the old western days. She was born in Owenton, Kentucky, and came west with her husband, the late Judge Augustine B. Roberts, of Owens County, Ky. She is reported to have been the first woman to have made the trip from Cannon City, Colo., to the Animus Valley.

She made most of this arduous trip by horseback, it was reported. Mrs. Roberts died after a lengthy illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mabelle R. Vanice, at 57 Haven avenue, Arcadia, where she went to live after leaving Sierra Madre for 20 years.

Surviving, in addition to her daughter, were three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren. Her body was returned to the place of her birth for interment.

OLIVERS GO NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Oliver of 246 S. Sunnyside will leave next week to spend their vacation in their old home town, Piedmont, near Oakland. They will be gone two weeks renewing friendships and visiting relatives in that area.

Linked to the world With a pair of wires.

There are some 45,000,000 telephones in the United States and several million more in other parts of the world. Over an individual pair of wires running from a subscriber's premises to a central office a subscriber can reach any one of them.

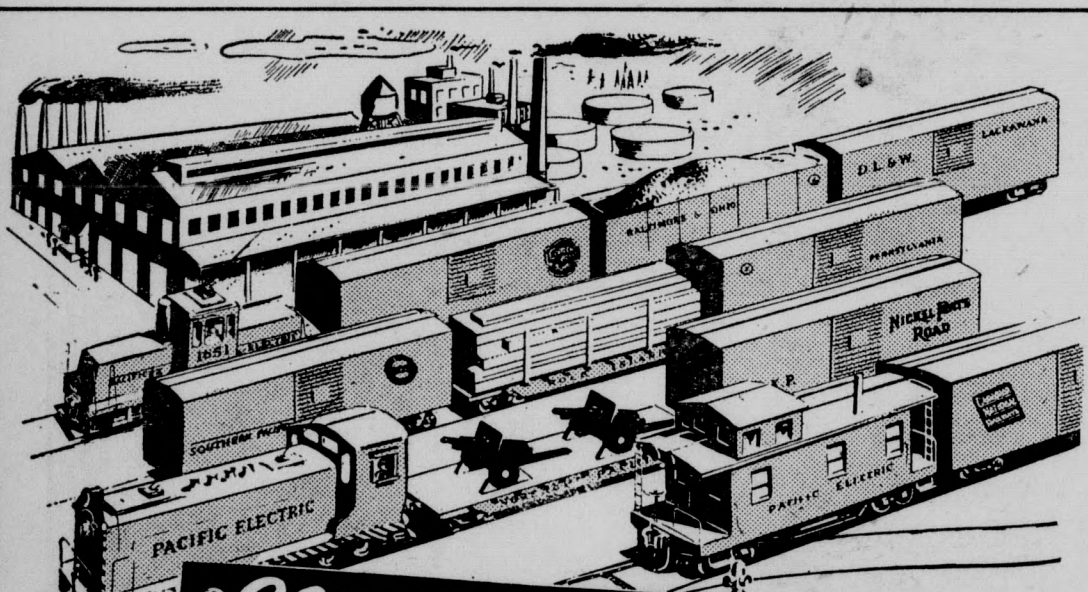

That pair of wires is an important link in this world-wide telephone chain because it connects a subscriber's telephone with the central office switching equipment which routes calls from place to place. Without these wires conventional telephone communication would be impossible.

It sometimes happens in fast-growing areas that residential development occurs in districts far removed from existing outside telephone plant and until the wire and cable necessary to connect a subscriber's telephone with the central office are installed service cannot be provided.

Outside plant is being extended as fast as circumstances allow and in time all applicants for service will have that individual pair of wires which will link them to the world.

Hastings Ranch

The birthday party for Ronald Kathol, given last week by his mother, Mrs. Ray Kathol of 3830 Mayfair drive, Hastings Ranch, is still being talked about in the 12-year-old male set up there.

Fifteen guests gathered at the Kathol house and began festivities by making recordings and playing them back to each other.

The entire group was then taken to Van de Kamp's dining room, where Ronald opened his presents and ice cream and cake were served to the guests. And then the guests wound up the afternoon at a movie—which they firmly announced was "for men only"; it turns out that even Ronald's mother wasn't permitted to accompany them.

Guests were Gary Murphy, Timmy Murphy, Lu Graham, Cary Watson, Bob Britton, Norman Kramer, Tommy Hill, Michael Jones, Denny Anteno, Michael Doyle, Don Smith, Spencer Johnson, Gary Miller and Kenneth Smith. Ronald's sister, Sherry Rae, was permitted to enjoy the ice cream and cake and was sent home when the men went to the movies.

To Spend Vacation Visiting Territory Near Donner Pass

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley D. Fish of 130 E. Montecito left this week to make an interesting trip into old California pioneer territory, up near Donner Pass.

Having purchased a four-wheel jeep in order to make the journey into the rugged mountain territory in the High Sierras, near Truckee, they will travel into the interior and visit some of the mining property formerly held by Mrs. Fish's father, James N. Hawks.

Mrs. Fish, the former "Missy" Hawks, says that although the family leased their rights to the property some years ago, they have always retained the rights to visit the mining area, deep in the rugged territory where the Donner party perished that fatal winter.

"It's a wonderful way to spend a vacation," she reports, enthusiastically.

OFFICIALS VACATIONING

City hall faces continued to turn up missing this week as vacations decimated the ranks of workers. Councilman Lawrence Washburn had returned last week, after a vacation spent mainly fishing. And Water Superintendent Al Freeland was off—destination unknown.

The Pasadena and San Gabriel Valley division of Bachelors n' Bachelorettes announced this week the election of new officers and set the dates for its weekly dances for four Tuesdays, beginning last week at the Jefferson Recreation Center, 1501 E. Villa street, Pasadena.

Officers are Leo Decaen, president; Art Johnson, vice-president; Clyde Glantz, second vice-president; Marylee Johnson and Marge Hahn, secretaries; and Pearl Sylvester, treasurer.

For the Tuesday dances Wayne Donhoff will call for the intermediate-advanced group at outdoor dancing on the Patio. Bill Ray will instruct beginners in the east wing hall of the building.

(4) If I don't vote for anybody I can complain about everybody, and about everything that happens in the next four years. I won't have to go to the trouble of being "constructive" or of looking at two sides of any issue, or of realizing everybody, even governments can make mistakes. I can just yell at the top of my voice, every day, for the pure fun of it.

(5) I think there are better ways of governing men than the American form.

(6) A lot of men in different parts of the world will be awfully happy if I don't vote, and will then be able to demonstrate to their own people how decadent the American democracy has become.

CIVIC CLUB REVIEWS PAST AS ITS NEW YEAR BEGINS

The Sierra Madre Civic Club this week entered its ninth year as one of Sierra Madre's leading service organizations. The Civic Club, in the past, has lived up to the expectations of the town in its willingness and spirit, in sponsoring and helping in many important crises, both national and state, and also in our own community. These included Kiwanis sponsored Youth Fund Drive. During the last year, the Civic Club sponsored the War Bond drives and the U.S.O. money raising projects.

The March of Dimes has always been successfully organized and run by the Civic Club, with Sierra Madre invariably going far over the quota given them by the National Foundation. An Old Time Mello-Drama was organized and given last year to raise money for the Sister Kenny Hospital and the National Arthritis Foundation.

In recent years they have participated in local Tuberculosis and Cancer drives, and the members have helped in Red Cross and Community Drives.

In the field of philanthropy, they have helped teenage patients by sponsoring a ward at Olive View Sanitarium, making gifts and presents and furnishing entertainment for them. Santa Theresta also has been helped through the good will of the Civic Club.

Toy-Loan is probably the "pet" project. With the help of town-raised funds and the Kiwanis Club a Toy-Loan Cottage was built in the City Park.

Last Week new board members met with the newly elected president, Mrs. William Wilcox, at her home, to make plans for the coming year. First on the agenda is a membership drive culminating in a Break-fast-Swim at one of Waggoners private pools. Any woman who is willing to work and donate a little time in any civic or philanthropic venture of the Civic Club is welcome to join them. Membership chairman this year is Mrs. Alyce Herrold, CUster 5-5527.

The Civic Club is a member in good standing of the National Federation of Womens Clubs.

H. M. Simpsons New To Sierra Madre; "Love Mountains"

Newcomers to Sierra Madre are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Simpson, who moved into 191 Alta Vista drive in June from their former home in Pasadena.

Both of them former citizens of the Rose City, they say they have always loved mountains, and now revel in their canyon home and in the vistas from their windows over the San Gabriels.

They have one child, a three-year-old daughter, Colleen. Mr. Simpson is associated with Consolidated Engineering in Pasadena.

Mrs. Richard Chaney Guest of Honor At Stork Shower

Mrs. Richard Chaney, wife of the pianist of the First Baptist Church, was guest of honor this week at a baby shower given by the women of that church.

Hostess for the affair was Mrs. Roy Gibbs, wife of the pastor of First Baptist. After presenting the honoree with a purse and gifts, the hostess and her assistants served refreshments to the guests.

Rev. Chaney and his wife and daughter came to this area from New Hampshire, so that Mr. Chaney might pursue his theological studies at Fuller

Sue Sauter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Sauter of 174 S. Sunnyside, left this week to spend a fortnight at Arrow-Bear Music Camp. Joyce, one of the most talented of the younger musicians in town, is both a vocalist and pianist, and will pursue both lines during her stay at the famous camp.

Joyce Lange, daughter of the Harry Langes, has returned from Camp Wasegawagon, in the Barton Flats area, where she served as swimming instructor for the Camp Fire organization which operates that camp.

Penny and Dick Bell of 419 E. Highland have been visiting relatives at Laguna since the ninth. Dick returned Monday, but Penny is staying on at the shore resort until this Monday.

Alan Hurwit of 203 Santa Anita Court had an interesting visit last week with his uncle, who is personnel manager for 20th-Century Fox. Alan watched the workers on the 20th Century lot shoot a scene from "Powder River," which will star Rory Calhoun and Corinne Calvet.

Faith Gutherz has returned after spending eight weeks at Catalina Island.

Ann Carlson and Nancy Moffatt took part in a slumber party last week at the home of Betty Parrott of Pasadena. And our own guess is that they didn't get much sleep; how about it, girls?

SOUTH DAKOTA PICNIC

The annual summer picnic for all former South Dakotans residing in Southern California, and all persons from South Dakota now visiting in Southern California, will be held in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, Sunday, Aug. 31. On the last Sunday of August each year, thousands of South Dakotans bring their picnic lunches and have a real get-together meeting at Sycamore Grove in Los Angeles.

GENE LUNSFORDS

The Gene Lunsfords—he's the local accountant, and they live at 600 N. Michillinda—will leave by plane this week for British Columbia, in company with their small son. They expect to spend several weeks up in the Canadian territory before returning to Sierra Madre.

FIRE FLAMES

There was a goodly turn-out at last Friday's drill and meeting. Drilling at the rear of the business buildings of Kersting Court, the boys found it necessary to call for help when Joe Grippi as engineer turned on the pressure. A new volume nozzle recently was in use and when it comes to turning out lots of water, this snout can surely shoot the works. And it can make a lot of work for a couple men. It is sincerely hoped that the major fires that require the actual use of such a large nozzle, will never occur. The drill acquainted the men with several things of importance, one of which was the amount of water available from the plugs at the rear of the stores.

There were signs of much regret as the meeting opened following the drill, when it was announced that Harold Spears had definitely decided to resign from the fire department. It was Harold's opinion that a younger man could fulfill the position and attend drills and meetings more regularly than he. Spears will be greatly missed at the meetings and fires. He was a source of creating much of the hilarity that is so important in retaining interest in a volunteer working organization. With Harold in attendance, the meetings seldom had a dull moment. His judgment during business trials was also very important and much relied on. We are all anxious that he appear at the meeting occasionally, if only for a visit. . . Upon the resignation of Spears, it was necessary to hold an election to fulfill the vacancy left on the Active Roll. Jimmie Tyler was chosen by the vote of the members. Tyler has been an Auxiliary member for a considerable length of time and has proved to the men that he is vitally interested. There are few more very well fitted young men on the Auxiliary list who await their call to the Active list.

A strange face at the meeting last week was J. George Norris as well as two visitors from the San Gabriel Valley Firemen's Association—Mickey Finn, the president, and Captain R. V. Kendall, secretary of the SGVFA. Both men showed amazement at the interest and attendance of the Sierra Madre representatives at the coming September California State

SPIKE JONES—Entertainer Spike Jones was having trouble with his laundry, which kept shrinking certain items of his wardrobe. No amount of protest did any good. So Jones, whose Musical Depreciation Revue gets top billing during the 11-day 1952 National Home Show starting Aug. 22, enclosed a large spike with his laundry bundle and tied a note to it challenging, "Try and shrink this!" When his laundry returned, Jones found a small tack in the bundle with a note reading, "We Did."

FREE DESERT VACATIONS FOR THE LUCKY WINNERS

Free accommodations at some of California's most swanky desert resorts are being offered this season by the Desert Empire Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce, to a number of people who may be fortunate enough to give the best reasons as to why they actually want to visit the desert. A contest will start on Aug. 15 and will end Nov. 1. To compete, all that is necessary is to complete the following in 25 additional words or less: "I would like to visit California Desert Wonderland because . . ."

There is no limit to the number of entries provided each entry is sent in a separate envelope. Naturally entries cannot be acknowledged or returned, and when submitted they become the property of the committee. Sign your name and address and forward to Desert

Empire Committee, Box 17006, Los Angeles, Calif.

Winners will have the choice, in order of standing, of one week free accommodations for two at such outstanding desert resorts as: The Desert Inn, Palm Springs; El Reposo, Desert Hot Springs; De Anza Hotel, Calexico; Shadow Mountain Club, Palm Desert; Furnace Creek Inn, Death Valley; Apple Valley Inn, Apple Valley; El Adobe, Twentynine Palms; Borrego Desert Resort, Borrego Springs. Other prizes include two day vacations for two at Golden Mesa Dude Ranch, Lancaster; Rancho El Sueno, Lucerne Valley; 29 Palms Inn, Twentynine Palms.

Firemen's Association convention to be held at Fresno. They informed that the SGVFA will conduct a Hospitality Room at the convention and wished Sierra Madre a hearty welcome. They are assured a visit from us.

And we cannot forget that we are RIGHT NOW in the very dry season of the year. It's true, this particular condition arrives each year following the one before. And we must not be ungrateful for the good luck we have enjoyed. The few fires that we have had does not mean that we are immune and will not have any. We are subject to the very worst sort of a fire if we relax for one minute and permit carelessness to take over. Throwing lighted cigarettes or from a car, for that matter, from anywhere at any time, is dangerous. There are so many ways that fire will start now. Everything is so dog-goned dry that even a spark can start a fire. If you have an accumulation of inflammable materials around the premises and even tho' they may not be too hazardous in themselves, they are a great source of extensive heat if a fire gets near them. Despite the hot weather and the feeling that goes with it,—your firemen are still trying to keep down fires and are great believers in fire PREVENTION, rather than fire extinguishing. We will do our best to keep prepared anyway.

'Abe Lincoln' At Playhouse Aug. 21-31

"Abe Lincoln in Illinois," Robert Sherwood's famous play, takes its place in Midsummer Drama Festival list at Pasadena Playhouse from Aug. 21 to 31 as the fifth play in the current "Great Americans" series.

Young Abe, the shop-keeping failure, the fair-to-middling railsplitter, the friendly man of destiny groping through his early Springfield years before a Washington-bound train carries him to the Capitol and immortality. That is the Sherwood play, an authentic, heart warming yarn told in quick moving scenes, meaningful and humorous.

Walter Beaver plays the name role, with Mel Ford, Barbara Vath, Will J. White, Paul Burch, George Kyrion, June Hammerstein and Nancy Baxter in, top roles under Morris Ankrum's direction.

New Highway Patrolmen Will Clamp Down On Vehicle Violations

Special squads of California Highway Patrolmen will soon be moving into areas around the state which have the most serious accident problems. Patrol headquarters in Sacramento reported today.

Designated as "special enforcement units," the squads will work closely with each area's regular Patrol force in efforts to push the traffic death and injury curve downward.

Enforcement will be concentrated on the locations where and during the hours when most accidents occur and against the violations causing them.

Patrol Commissioner Clifford E. Peterson pointed out that more than 90 per cent of all fatal or injury accidents in California involve one or more vehicle code violations.

"We're still short of men on a statewide basis," Commissioner Peterson said, "but this program should enable us to improve the accident picture in the more critical areas."

Mrs. A. N. Dingman Dies At Home On Highland Avenue

Mrs. Adeline Norris Dingman, a member of one of the oldest families in Sierra Madre, died Aug. 15 at her home, 470 W. Highland avenue.

A resident of this city for 35 years, she was born in Toronto, Canada.

Surviving are two cousins, James George Norris of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Ruley Cumers of Ontario.

Private committal was at Pasadena Mausoleum, with arrangements conducted by Grant Chapel.

The Junior League of Pasadena announced this week the presentation of four Pop Concerts, to be held on consecutive Fridays beginning Sept. 12, at Santa Anita Race Track.

David Rose and his orchestra will play from a specially designed shell located on the track, in front of the Turf Club, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Trumpet player Raphael Mendez will be featured.

Modeling the programs on the outstandingly successful ones of the Boston "Pops" orchestra, the Friday night affairs will be divided in three parts: the first half-hour semi-classical music, the second half-hour classical music and the last half-hour current popular music.

The facilities of the Turf Club will be opened to those attending the concerts, the Junior League reports.

Colorful Fiesta In San Pedro Aug. 19-21

An invitation went out today to Southern California communities and organizations to join in the annual Fishermen's Fiesta Sept. 19-21, sponsored for the sixth straight year by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce.

They were asked by Fiesta Chairman John Real to sponsor purse seiners in the colorful parade of gaily decorated fishing vessels which traditionally climaxes the three-day celebration. This year the theme will be "Musical Memories."

Boats may be sponsored in two divisions—non-commercial consisting of lodges, service clubs and fraternal groups and commercial comprised of trade associations, towns and communities. Those interested can obtain additional information from Chairman Real at the Fishermen's Cooperative Association or from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce.

Honoring San Pedro and Los Angeles Harbor as the world's biggest commercial fishing port and the fishing industry as California's fourth largest, the fiesta is a gala, activity-packed carnival fete that is unique among spectator events.

Col. and Mrs. C. R. Gildart of 531 Elm street, received word by cable on Aug. 15 of the birth of a grandson, George Draper Lewis, on that date. The new arrival is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Draper Lewis of Santurce, Puerto Rico.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon W. Fuller are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Patricia Denise, on Aug. 15. The baby's mother is the former Lois Fuller of this city. Patricia has an older sister, Kerry Susan.

GUESTS AT LODGE

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wailes and son, David, of 500 N. Michillinda, were guests recently at the Giant Forest Lodge, in Sequoia National Park. They spent four days viewing the Big Trees.

BOY 10

by had just begun to dive off the high dive platform when a little girl jumped into the water in front of the platform. To avoid diving on top of her, Bobby grabbed for the platform, his hands slipped, and he fell to the cement below.

Bobby was taken to his doctor by Mrs. Meyer and was treated for a fractured bone in the upper arm.

An ambulance was summoned ("no one at the Pool knew who called it," states Mrs. Meyer), and was guided to the Pool by Police Officer Heasley, after it had stopped at City Hall for information as to the location of the Pool.

Officials of the Canyon Pool could not be reached for confirmation.

Mass Is Sung For Local Man

Mass was sung at 10 a.m. this morning in St. Rita's Church for Albert Manuel Tessier, 68, who died Monday in a San Bernardino Hospital after an illness of four months.

Rosary was recited last night and interment today will be in Calvary Cemetery. Mr. Tessier was a member of St. Rita's and of the Holy Name Society.

A resident of Sierra Madre since 1947, Mr. Tessier lived at 323 N. Mountain Trail. He was a native of Sutton, Nebraska.

Surviving are his widow, Mary A., of the Mountain Trail address; a brother, Roy, of Mitchell, S. D.; and a sister, Mrs. Ada Spratt of Seattle, Wash.

Grant Chapel was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

RETURNS TO OHIO TO SEE PARENTS

Mrs. William Jack of Rancho road is spending her vacation visiting with her parents and friends back in Ohio.

Mrs. Jack drove to Ohio, but will return by plane from the Buckeye State.

BACK FROM PITTSBURGH

Mrs. Frances Brain has returned to her home at 61 W. Highland avenue after spending eight weeks in Pittsburgh, Penna.

Explorer Scouts

The Explorer Scouts, under the direction of George Black and his assistant, Jim Spears, left on the 16th at 3:30 a.m. (get that—A.M.) for a two-weeks' trip to the Upper Kern River Basin. Making up the group are Bob Middlebrook, Stephen Melzger, Charles Asher, Richard Eddy, Bob Nelson, Terry Westhaver and Jim Humphrey. Ernie Patterson was unable to make the trip, because of that broken leg he suffered on a trip to Vermont.

The boys will go by way of Independence, Lone Pine and the Mojave, with their objective Mt. Whitney. They have five burros, and each will carry a 30-lb. pack. Phew!

RUSTY AND ANN RETURN

Rusty and Anne—of the Malt Shop of the same name—are back after spending two weeks resting in Des Moines, Iowa. "Resting" is the word, too, they say; it was raining too hard even to go fishing, which gave them just the excuse they needed to get in all that sleep they've been looking forward to.
